

MURDER OF CONSUL

By Gen d'arme Has Caused Intense Excitement. Demand for Punishment.

Insurgents Capture Town, Kill Fifty-two of the Garrison, and Hoist Red Flag Bearing Inscriptions of Defiance. Arrogancy Caused the Assassination.

Constantinople, Aug. 10.—The murder of the Russian consul, Mr. Rostkovski, has caused intense excitement here and is the sole topic of conversation in the streets.

The general belief is that the incident is bound to considerably aggravate the already serious situation in Macedonia, and it is felt that it will undoubtedly encourage the Bulgarians to support the insurrectionary movement, which is spreading rapidly, notably to the southward of Monastir.

According to mail advices from Monastir, dated Aug. 5, the insurgents who recently occupied the little town of Krushovo, 23 miles north of Monastir, numbered 900. They killed the garrison consisting of 52 soldiers, dynamited and burned the government buildings, and then hoisted on a hill, overlooking the town, a red flag, bearing on one side a lion with the inscription, "Death or Liberty" and on the other, the words, "Courage Brothers." The rebels were still in possession of the town, when the letters were sent off.

Practically the whole country north of Monastir is in revolt. The Turkish official reports state that bands of revolutionists in considerable numbers, have crossed the frontier, from Bulgaria, during the last few days. The local Bulgarian officials, however, deny this, and declare that the strictest watch is being kept along the frontier.

Another Account.

The assassination of the Russian consul at Monastir, M. Rostkovski, the second murder of a Russian consular official in Macedonia, within a few months, has created intense excitement. In reporting the occurrence to the foreign office, the Russian ambassador at Constantinople telegraphed August 8: "The Russian consul at Monastir has fallen the victim of an atrocious crime. The grand vizier and the Turkish foreign minister, have come to me with expressions of regret in the name of the Sultan. Ferid Pasha, the grand vizier, informed me that the assassin was a gendarme, named Halim, and that he would be subjected to the severest punishment, and the Vail of Monastir will be removed from his post. In reply, Count Lamasson, the foreign minister, telegraphed to the ambassador, August 9: "His majesty has received a telegram from the Sultan, expressing his deep regret at the death of the Russian consul at Monastir. When I submitted these telegrams to the Emperor, his Majesty gave orders that you should not confine yourself to receiving explanations from the grand vizier, but, should demand the most energetic demands on the Turkish government for full satisfaction, and immediate and exemplary punishment both of the murderer and of all the military and civil officials on whom responsibility for the audacious crime may fall."

According to the report made by the official now in charge of the Russian consulate, at Monastir, the murderer is a gendarme. The consul asked his name, because, in defiance of instructions, the gendarme did not salute him. The gendarme thereupon fired several shots, mortally wounding the consul in the head and hip. The horse drawing the carriage in which the consul was riding, received two bullets and shots were also fired at the coachman.

GEN'DARME

Was Driven to Murder of Consul by His Arrogancy.

Belgrade, Servia, Aug. 10.—According to the latest reports received here regarding the murder of the Russian consul at Monastir, Rostkovski, abused the gendarme, who was doing duty for not saluting him, and called him a "pig of a Turk." Then he struck the sentry with his whip, saying: "Next time, perhaps you will know me." The gendarme thereupon fired on the consul.

It is stated that M. Rostkovski was hated by the Turks, on account of his intense arrogance.

Blew Up Custom House.

Vienna, Aug. 10.—According to a despatch from Salonica, the insurgents last evening, blew up with dynamite, the custom house, at Zibevche, on the Serbian frontier. There were no fatalities.

Not First Experience.

Belgrade, Aug. 10.—A. Rostkovski had been in Macedonia for twenty years. He knew the inside of almost every village in the province and was regarded as a firm friend of the Christians. He was a believer in the tradition that an overbearing manner was best in dealing with Orientals. Last May the consul had an experience apparently similar to the incident which led to his death. He went to the village of Mogil, six miles north of Monastir to investigate the Turkish excesses there. The Turkish troop had cordoned the village. A sergeant seized the consul's horses and the latter struck the sergeant. His action placed him in imminent danger until his identity was revealed.

GEN'L MILES HAS ACCEPTED

Office of President of Jefferson Memorial Association During Its Life.

Washington, Aug. 10.—Gen. Miles has accepted the office of president of the Thomas Jefferson memorial association and the association announces that his election is for the remainder of its existence. In his letter of acceptance, Gen. Miles says: "I am in receipt of your letter of the 6th ultimo, notifying me that I have been unanimously chosen as the president of the association organized for 'the erection at the national capital of an appropriate memorial to the annals of the Declaration of Independence.' The enunciation of doctrines in that instrument was so comprehensive, so far reaching, so grand in design and noble in purpose, and result in such uplifting of the people of the new world and the millions who have followed, that its importance can scarcely be expressed in words or comprehended in thought. This work, adds to other achievements of noble purpose during the life of its author, makes it fitting that we should erect a memorial indicating his genius and labors.

DAKOTA DIVORCES.

Delicately Nurtured English Woman Scathingly Attacked

Because She Went to a Wild District of the Earth, Half Settled Dakota, Became an American Citizen, and Fraudulently Obtained Separation.

London, Aug. 10.—Sir Francis Jeune, president of the divorce court, today granted D. Constandindi, a divorce from his wife, a daughter of Stephen Hall, a member of Hall Bros. on the ground that the Mrs. Constandindi's conduct led to the misconduct of her husband.

The Constandindi divorce suit raised the question of the legality of Dakota divorces in England. The husband charged his wife with bigamy, marrying Dr. Lanco, the family physician. Mr. Constandindi obtained a judicial separation from his wife in 1899. John Lawson Walton, counsel for the petitioner explained the subsequent proceedings as follows:

MADAME HUMBERT

In a Characteristic Outbreak She Charges the President With Showing by His Manner That He Is Against Her and Her Family.

Paris, Aug. 10.—The trial of the Humbert family on the charge of forgery and swindling in connection with the fictitious Crawford millions, which began on Saturday, was resumed today, and drew another large crowd to the Palais de Justice.

Madame Therese Humbert continued to dominate the proceedings and created several scenes when the court attempted to examine the other members of the family. M. Bonnet, the presiding judge, insisted on examining Frederic Humbert, her husband, but Madame increase rising said: "I demand to be heard, I am strong today, and will explain where the millions are."

The judge however, proceeded with the examination of the other defendants, despite Madame Humbert's constant interruptions.

During Judge Bonnet's searching interrogation of her husband, Madame Therese dramatically exclaimed: "Monsieur the president, you are clearly showing by your manner, that you are against us. You should disguise your feelings and try to appear

WENT CRAZY LONG ENOUGH

To Kill His Wife and Shoot Himself... Domestic Tragedy in High Life.

Buffalo, N. Y., August 10.—Kent Stowe, son of D. D. Stowe, general central agent of Merchants' Despatch and Transportation Company, in this city, and residing at number 10 Richmond avenue, shot his wife early today, killing her instantly, then shot himself with probably fatal results. Stowe had been suffering from malarial fever but was about again, and yesterday, he and his wife were out for a long drive, returning during the evening in good spirits. They have an infant child, a year old, which Stowe is said to have brought down stairs this morning and left with his parents. A few minutes later his father heard shots from above and rushing up stairs, found his daughter-in-law dead and his son unconscious. Mr. Stowe, Sr., believes that his son was suffering from temporary insanity, the result of the fever. Young Stowe was 24 years old.

MOTHER LOVE WAS

Strong, and Yearning for Her Absent Child She Met Death.

It Is Presumed She Walked Upon the Track, and Broken Hearted by Her Grief and Trouble, Did Not Notice the Train Approaching.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 10.—Mrs. Lidian Edwards, of Akron, was killed by a Lake Shore train, at Olmstead Falls, yesterday. Her body was found at daylight by railroad men. Mrs. Edwards had been ill for some time. She was killed within a few yards of the home of her father, Edward Damp, an iron manufacturer. When Mrs. Edwards became ill, she went to live with her father at Olmstead Falls. She took her baby with her. The child became sick. Mrs. Edwards's not being able to give it proper care, she commented to have it sent to relatives in Cleveland. Sunday she was much grieved over the baby's absence. Mrs. Edwards retired to bed as usual. That was the last time her parents saw her alive. They do not know when she left the house. Her mangled body was found upon the railroad track. The woman was 39 years old and her baby 2 months. Her father said: "I don't believe she committed suicide. She was sick and her mind was unbalanced." It is presumed she walked upon the track, and in her grief and trouble, did not notice a train's approach.

Jackson township still has its share of good producers, but the Beaverdam pool is not alone in furnishing good wells to add to the credit of Allen county.

The McLean Oil company got a very fair producer at No. 11, on the F. A. Eiche farm, section 5, Jackson; the first days out put running to 100 barrels.

Sheller, Rodfern & Co's No. 1, on George Hipsher, in section 5, Jackson, was also a good well, its initial output being 60 barrels.

The Okeniva Oil company also got one of the 90 barrel kind at No. 2, on the R. McClure farm, section 8, Jackson.

In Amanda township the Giant Oil Production company's No. 21, J. N. Bailey farm, section 6, was a very good one; its first day's production amounting to 75 barrels.

J. R. Sunderland completed a test well on his Fee property, in section 10, Amanda and it will do about 15 barrels.

On the R. C. Patterson farm, section 21, Amanda, George E. Shaffer completed his second well which will be a small pump. The first days output showed an output of 18 barrels.

New wells in Spencer township are rather light. The Pittsburg & Indiana Oil and Gas company finished up No. 3, 3 Bays, section 1, near the town of Spencer, and got nothing better than a five barrel.

The Ketcher Oil company's test on the J. R. Miller farm in section 22, Spencer, northwest of Kill, was a 10 barrel producer.

The Zorn-Horning company's No. 6, on the G. P. Gengler farm, in section 11, Spencer, was very light, making but three barrels.

E. J. Mare & Co. finished up their No. 3, W. D. Pabing in section 14, of Marion township. It made 16 barrels at the start.

Main Bros. & Co. have a new well in Orange township Hancock county, south of Bluffton. It is on the John Matter farm, in the southeast quarter of section 24, and will be a light pump, doing about 15 barrels the first day.

On the Daniel Harding farm, in section 23, Orange, Mitchell & Smith completed a test well, which made 25 barrels.

The Ohio Oil company's No. 2, Isaac Chart, in section 29, Orange, is about the best that has been finished within the past week. It started off at a 75 barrel rate.

The Buckeye & Wolverine Oil company got a 15 barrel at No. 3, M. Albrecht, in section 28, Orange.

In Eagle township, two new wells are of the 15 barrel class. In section 8, R. A. Fuller & Co's No. 16, Joseph Feller, made that kind of a start, and the Cleveland & Hancock Oil Co's No. 7, N. Powell, section 5, had the same output.

In Union township, D. W. Beatty completed No. 2, Mary Orman, section 26, and it is of the 15 barrel stripe. West of Monticello, in section 13 of Union township, Mercer county, the Lima Oil company has finished up a test well on the W. J. McMichael farm, which will make a fair pump. Its initial output was about 15 barrels.

The Eastern Consolidated Oil company drilled No. 4, on the G. F. Griffin farm, section 1, Union, with 30 barrels as the first output.

Emerson & Stettin's No. 6, C. R. Emans, in section 10, Union, is good for about 10 barrels.

Vocum, Collins & Co. have a 20 barrel in their No. 8, on the George Roach farm, section 16, Union; the Curtin Oil company's No. 6, J. H. Manning, section 14, was of the same size, while Straight's No. 12, on the J. P. Hickernell, in section 12, proved a duster.

No Danger of Exhaustion.

As chief of division of the mineral resources of the United States, David T. Day, ranks high in the knowledge of the production and possibilities of petroleum supply of this country. Recently there have been numerous statements to the effect that the supply of petroleum was rapidly diminishing, so that the time would come in the not far remote future that would see the end of the greatest industry of the United States, the one out of which the most colossal fortune of the world has been made in the past thirty years. Dr. Day ridicules these pessimistic predictions, and says that there is no possibility of the supply failing. He says that Texas oil has just begun to be found, and that there are vast stores beneath the surface of Kansas, Indian Territory, Wyoming and Colorado, and that the possibility is that Alaska will equal if not exceed Pennsylvania as a producer of petroleum. West Virginia and Ohio also are to be great producers of oil. He asserts that:

There is no danger of the exhaustion of the supply of oil.

Production is now greater than ever before.

Consumption at present exceeds production and stocks above are diminishing.

An increase of price is indicated.

Such an increase will lead to the working of western fields and improvements in refining.

Present American methods of refining are unscientific.

Alaska can be counted on as a source of supply.

Will Develop Oil Territory.

The Allen County Oil Co., composed of gentlemen in this city, has been incorporated with a capital stock of $100,000, and will at once begin the development of its territory in Wyandot county, on a large scale. The company owns two good wells in territory which has hitherto been considered worthless.

Kentucky Situation.

The Cincinnati Enquirer's Lexington correspondent, has the following to say, concerning production in Kentucky:

"The advance in the price of crude oil was to some extent offset by the limited storage capacity in the southern developments of the Kentucky oil field, and consequently field work has not been marked with more than ordinary results during the past week. A new relay station has been established in Clay county, and the pressure in the lower developments, is being relieved to some extent. Oil will be sent through the Cumberland pipe line to the Licking river stations, where there is room for it.

In the five counties constituting the lower developments, the producers completed during the past few days have been of smaller caliber than usual. In Knox county, the week's work resulted in four strikes. The Sioux Falls Oil and Mining Co., got a ten barrel well on the Berry lease, in the Richland division, the Atlas Petroleum Co.'s McDonald No. 6, a 3 barrel producer, and the Walden Oil and Gas Co. 3 barrels. The Delta Petroleum Co., drilled in a good gasser on the Phipps lease, but the showing of oil is not encouraging. Eight wells are now drilling.

Active work will soon begin on the construction of the Standard's pipe line in Whitley county. Two wells were completed in Whitley county last week, the capacity of each being five barrels.

Several wells were finished up in Wayne county, the best, belonging to the Chenoe Oil Co., being good for 40 barrels. On the Davis farm, the Mayfield Co. made a 4 barrel strike, and the Kentucky & Ohio Oil Co. landed a five-barrel on the Slagle

EVEN

Finer Than Was Promised.

Great Changes

Have Been Made in the Fair Grounds

Which Now Present an Appearance as Fine as Any in the State.

Not an Old Shack Is Left Standing Without Repairs Which Make Them Match the New Ones Erected.

Several members of the Driving Park Co. and of the fair ground board paid a visit to the grounds Saturday, and took note of the progress which has been made by way of improvement, as well as offering suggestions which will enable the contractors to add other necessities which crop out at intervals. A wonderful improvement has been made and visitors to the grounds express themselves as greatly surprised at the wholesale destruction of old worn-out shacks, and the substitution of new and modern structures.

All of the new buildings and those which have been repaired are roofed with red tile, and the effect is decidedly pleasing. The educational building has been modeled to match the horticultural building, both being in the shape of a maltese cross, and stand side by side, just a little distance back of the great rooey grand stand, which is now rapidly nearing completion.

Art hall has been repaired inside and out, newly roofed with tin, and painted to match the other buildings. The pens for the stock are new, and considering that the competition is open to the state this year, instead of being confined to the county, they were made larger, and put in such condition as to make them inviting to visitors.

The Driving Park Company has erected several fine, large stables, roofed with the same pattern of red tile, and at the entrance to the grounds is a neat and attractive cottage, which will be occupied the year round by the keeper of the grounds. What is perhaps considered by horsemen as the greatest improvement of all, is the widening of the track the entire distance of the home stretch, and the 20 feet added will give to a big field of horses room to spare in an exciting finish.

A Physician Healed.

Dr. George Ewing, a practicing physician of Smith's Grove, Ky., for over thirty years, writes his personal experience with Foley's Kidney Cure: "For years I had been greatly bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and enlarged prostate gland. I used everything known to the profession without relief, until I commenced to use Foley's Kidney Cure. After taking three bottles I was entirely relieved and cured. I prescribe it now daily in my practice, and heartily recommend its use to all physicians for such troubles. I have prescribed it in hundreds of cases with perfect success."

Just a Hint.

"Well, I do eat."

A lazy liver makes a lazy man. Burdock Blood Bitters is the natural, never failing remedy for a lazy liver.

A STRENUOUS BUG.

It Drives Its Bill Through Corn-stalks and Eats the Chickens.

The corn "bill bug" is about beetles of various size and color, but averaging rather large, the majority of them dull black, with the surface much marked with small pits and narrow grooves. They injure and often kill young corn in spring by thrusting the beak into the stem of the plant near its base and eating out the tender tissue beneath the point of puncture. Their presence in the field is very soon manifested by the appearance of circular or oblong holes running in rows across the blade of the leaf, each row resulting from a single thrust of the beak when the leaves were closely rolled together in the young plant.

An Illinois farmer wrote last season to the state experiment station:

"The bugs will lock their legs around a stalk of corn and run their trunk right through it as if it were a spike driven through a pine board. It is costing us hundreds of dollars as tribute to bug hunting expeditions, plowing our land over and replanting where a week ago we had as good a stand as heart could wish."

Another writer also gives an amusing account of contests between his "elephant bugs" and young chickens, and on this point his statements are corroborated by a letter from another correspondent accompanied by a specimen. In both cases chickens had undertaken to devour these beetles, but the latter had saved themselves by clasping their legs around the beak of the bird and holding on so vigorously as to make it impossible for the chicken to open its mouth.

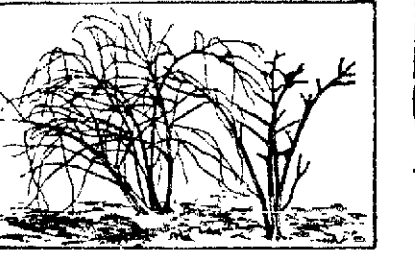

Injury from these bugs was frequent last year in Illinois. State Entomologist Forbes finds that if a field of grass infested by corn bill bugs be plowed in the fall before the time of insect hibernation has begun it will be but lightly infested by them. If at all, the following year. Early fall or summer plowing of grass lands intended for corn is thus an effective measure of prevention against injury to that crop the following year.

Potato Planting.

One of the most helpful ways in making an early potato crop is to prepare the sets for planting some time in advance, cutting them into halves or quarter pieces, so as to get one, two or three eyes on each set, and then exposing them to air long enough to dry the cut surface so that it will not rot when it comes in contact with wet and cold soil. Many acres of early potatoes become failures from non attention to this simple precaution. After the cut surface has sealed over the potato set should be exposed to light so as to make its buds green. When they begin to expand, the set should be planted if the ground is in condition to be worked. The growing germ will dry out the sap in the potato and will also dry the soil around the set and make it warmer.—American Cultivator.

How to Prune Blackberries.

The figure represents Kansas black-cap raspberries as they grow on the grounds of the Rural New Yorker with ordinary cultivation. The bush on the right is pruned for fruiting—that is, the old canes have been cut out, together with the weak new growths and the branches shortened back to moderate spurs, cutting to a plump bud. The unpruned bush shows how the tips anchor when growth is not hampered.

UNPRUNED—PRUNED FOR FRUITING.

by summer pinching. On account of frequent high winds during summer and early fall it is found inexpedient to cut out old canes when the fruit ripens or interfere with the natural development of the new growth until pruning time returns the following spring. The plants, unless trained to wires or stakes, need all possible support against wind pressure and know well how to provide it. In less exposed places summer pruning may be an advantage, but it is doubtful whether productiveness is greatly increased by it.

Early Cauliflower.

Cauliflower plants grown under glass are set in the open ground just as soon as the soil conditions are favorable. The soil should be very rich, rather moist, but well drained and kept under thorough tillage. When plants begin to form heads, tie the outer leaves over the heart to shade it. Cauliflowers cannot stand our full summer heat and sunshine.

Not So Badly Said.

Farming is no longer the occupation of the mere toiler. It demands the trained brain as well as the strong body, knowledge as well as physical endurance.

It is only necessary to mention "EMORY MILL REMNANT SALE" and you know the bargain event of the season is at hand. Past success is a guarantee of the future. We again offer you Remnants from the leading Eastern mills, shipped to us by mill agent, Mr. W. T. Emory. Progress is the law of life. When things animate cease to grow better, decay begins. The store which stands still is dead. The good store of yesterday is commonplace today, and out of date tomorrow. Eternal effort is the price of progress. To do better today the thing done yesterday; to serve better today the public which we served yesterday is the day-by-day labor that makes this store popular and attractive to our welcome customers. Don't forget that in addition to this great assortment of Remnants put on at this sale, we offer many lines of our regular goods at "MILL REMNANT SALE PRICES." This is not a sale for one day, but a sale for many days. Come every day and you will find new goods offered at prices that cannot be matched in any house in this vicinity, or any other part of the country. "LOOK FOR THE GREEN TICKET" and you will at once see and learn the explanation.

REMEMBER THE DATES.

And don't forget that most liberal and fair dealing methods will be in full force during this SEMI-ANNUAL MILL REMNANT SALE as well at all other times

Press reports indicate that President Roosevelt and Governor Durbin have organized a new mutual admiration society.

The accident to Wallace's circus in Michigan, last Friday morning, with all its harrowing details, should have the good effect of removing the charm of circus life from the mind of many a small boy.

Should Durbin, of Indiana be Roosevelt's running mate, and the republican ticket be successful in the next presidential election, ex-Governor Taylor, an enforced resident of Indiana, under the protecting power of Durbin, would make a good secretary of state.

The fact that the New York Board of Trade has organized a press bureau for the purpose of convincing the voters of this country, that something must be done to aid the impoverished shipping interests that sail under the United States flag, will aid but little in securing "congressional legislation," in the shape of a ship subsidy bill. Hanna domination, and the application of the party lash, are the only forces that will ever fasten that steal on the people.

It cost the property owners in Lima, thousands of dollars to pave the streets in front of their property, and it is unfair to them that other persons for the mere purpose of gain, should be permitted to go upon this improvement, tear it up, use the street for the private purposes, and make no attempt to restore it to its former condition. The people who have torn up the asphalt or brick paving should be compelled to see that the property of the city should not suffer through permission given to them to use the streets for the purpose of private gain, and it is up to the board of contract to look after the city's interests in the transaction.

JOHNSON'S LIEUTENANT

Believes Mayor Will Be Forced to Take the Nomination.

Cleveland, O., August 10.—Charles P. Salen, chief political lieutenant, for Mayor Johnson said this morning that it is his belief that the mayor will be nominated by acclamation by the democrats at the coming state convention in Columbus. According to Mr. Salen, the sentiment for Cleveland's mayor is growing so rapidly that nothing can prevent this result.

Mr. Johnson is said not to want the nomination but it will be forced upon him. Mr. Salen says there is no objection to Mr. Zimmerman as candidate, for he is considered a good democrat and an upright citizen, but the wishes of the delegates will be so overwhelming for Johnson that no other candidate will be considered.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 10.—Word was received by Union Depot officials today, of missing bundle in which $7,300 had been sewed by Mrs. Augusta Van Clerke, of Shawnee, Kas., and which she supposed had dropped from a Rock Island train while enroute to St.

Paul, has been found. Mrs. Van Clerke in the hurry of leaving her old home had forgotten the valuable article, and returned home just in time to save it from being burned as rubbish by the new tenants of her house.

DAY OPENED WITH UNEASY

Feeling on Exchange, But All Sheets Cleared, and Prices Advanced.

New York, Aug. 10.—Although very irregular and excited at the opening today, the stock market reflected very slightly last week's demoralization and alarm. There were only a few losses in the initial trades and trading was not in large volume. There was not much evidence of further liquidation. The greatest losses were 2 points in Norfolk and Western, and Virginia Carolina Chemical, 1½ in Del. and Hudson, and 1-4 in Texas and Pacific and United States Realty, preferred. Rock Island common and preferred, and Steel preferred, also sold down. On the other hand, there were substantial gains. Canadian Pacific, concerning which fears of a corner were expressed last Saturday, opened with an advance of 2½; Union Pacific which made a severe decline last Saturday, was up ¾ with fractional advances also in New York Central, Reading and Erie. Supporting orders rallied the list all around. Canadian Pacific made further improvement, selling up to 126. In fact the advance in this stock helped greatly to steady the list elsewhere, the shorts covering very generally. Southern Pacific, also gained materially. London, from accounts, bought considerable stock at the opening.

Much of the early improvement was lost by the end of the first hour. Canadian Pacific sold off in common with the rest of the list. A premium of ½ point was bid for Canadian Pacific, till tomorrow. All sheets went through the stock exchange clearing house this morning.
Pressure amongst the leaders centered upon Missouri Pacific, which fell two points under Saturday's close.
Atchafson, Rock Island, preferred and Pennsylvania got a point under and Manhattan 1½, American Express 5,
Pressed Steel Car 4½, New York Air Brake 4½, Consolidated Gas 4, Southern Railway preferred, 3½ and Texas and Pacific Land Trust 3. The market steadied again and became dull.
Later there was some further decline. A vigorous rally then set in, the buying movement showing considerable animation. The Pacific, Atchafson, St. Paul, New York Central, B. & O., Erie first preferred, People's Gas, Sugar, and Consolidated Gas recovered 1 to 2, Norfolk Western preferred rose 2 over Saturday, and Minneapolis St. Paul and Sault Ste Marie 1½.

New York, August 10.—There was a good deal of suppressed excitement at the opening of the stock exchange today and considerable relief was reported by the sprinkling of gains shown among the predominance of losses. Declines were not exceptionally violent in any cases and the selling was not on a remarkable large scale. The most notable gain was a jump of 2½ in Canadian Pacific and Union Pacific rose ¾. New York Central, Reading and Erie rose same fractions. Among the losses were drops of 2 points in Norfolk & Western and Virginia Carolina Chemical.
Delaware and Hudson, off 1½ and Texas and Pacific, 1¼.

Supporting orders were very evident and there were quick recoveries within the first few minutes.

New York, Aug. 10.—The announcement that all stock sheets had gone through the clearing house steadied the market but there was no renewal of strength. Trading was quiet.
Brooklyn Union broke 9½, Minneapolis and St. Paul 8½, Consolidated Gas 3, St. Louis and San Francisco, second preferred 2½, Manhattan and St. Paul preferred 2, Southern Railway preferred 1½. There was a rise of 3 in Long Island and 1½ in Twin City Rapid Transit. Bonds were heavy at noon.

Impressive Buying.
Buying of a new and impressive character was reported after 1 o'clock and prices of many stocks were on a level with the best and remained so until the close.

LETTER FROM
MAN TO WHOMShe Was Betrothed Called Everything
Over and She Suicided.

Chicago, Ill., August 10.—Desperate over the loss of her betrothed, Miss Marie Gordon, whose home is at 223 Smythe street, Montgomery, Ala., attempted suicide at the Auditorium today. She registered there July 30 as Mrs. Henry Glover and has been at the races every day, playing the horses heavily and being uniformly successful. She came here from Nashville, Tenn.

Friday night she went out with a man, supposed to be W. H. Lytle, of Memphis, the son of wealthy parents, who are connected in business in this city.

He took her to Dick Show's place on Dearborn street, and while there Lytle became engaged in a quarrel with Jacob Smith, a colored porter, over a bill of $2 and he shot Smith. Lytle and the woman ran to their cab, which was waiting outside, and escaped. From conversation in the Show place it was learned that the woman was stopping at the Auditorium annex.

Miss Gordon dined in the cafe at 6 last night, and returned to her room. It was noticed that she had been weeping. Hardly had she closed her door, when two shots were heard, and when the hotel men broke into the room she was found with two bullet holes above her heart.

Doctors were called, but she secured the revolver and tried again to shoot herself. She fought off the men who attempted to aid her, and asked them to let her die. Dr. Hammond removed one bullet, but the woman's determination to die prevented him from extracting the other, which he thinks will prove fatal. From letters in her possession the police are convinced that she is Miss Marie Gordon, and not Mrs. Henry Glover, as she registered.

A telegram was received for her last night from Birmingham. It said: "Everything all right. Come home." A letter from Montgomery signed "Van," evidently the man to whom she was betrothed, begged her to forsake her life and return South. It spoke of returning her gifts to him, and said that everything was over between them.

Still Conceals Identity.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 10.—With the chances for recovery decidedly against her, the young woman who attempted to take her own life in her apartments at the Auditorium yesterday, steadfastly refuses today to make known her identity. Nothing is known thus far as to her identity, further than the name, Mrs. Henry Glover, under which she registered at the hotel, and that her home is in Montgomery, Ala., from which city a telegram was received last night.

He Rang Off.

A telephone message was received at the Auditorium from a man in Montgomery early in the day requesting permission to speak to Mrs. Glover. When told that she was not able to answer the telephone the man at once rang off. From information gathered by the police the woman is believed to be formally Miss Marie Gordon, of Montgomery, Ala., and her husband a resident of New Orleans.

Getting at Facts.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 10.—Through a later telephone message from Montgomery, from a woman giving her name as Catherine Hayes, the authorities believe they have identified the woman by suicide, who is believed to be dying, is a niece of Mrs. Carter B. Harrison, of Murphysboro, Tenn. The message was to the effect that the woman was the daughter of Evanda Lytle of Murphysboro and grand daughter of Gen. W. A. Lytle.

Almost Verification.

Chicago, Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 10.—Mrs. Henry Glover, who attempted suicide in Chicago last night had formerly lived in this city under the name of Marie Gordon. Her real name is said to have been Mary Lytle. She was from Murphysboro, Tenn., where it is said her parents are prominent. She left Montgomery for Chicago two weeks ago.

Grounds.Arcade Team Wins From Westminster on Haller Street Grounds.
Other Games and Other Attractions.

The national game was a numerous and prominent attraction for Lima people yesterday, affording an afternoon's amusement for several hundred people on three different ball grounds. The City Transfer Co.'s White Stockings won their first game on their new grounds, on the Berryman farm, defeating the Lima Giants in a close score in a eleven inning game. The Westminster team was scalped by Andy Westby's Arcade team on the Haller street grounds, the Pirates met the team known as the Stars, on the Woodlawn avenue grounds, and there were a number of games of less importance at other points.

Twelve Inning Game.
The game between the White Stockings and the colored Giants, on the City Transfer Co.'s grounds on the Berryman farm, was perhaps the most interesting and exciting game of the day, the teams being well matched and the game being sensational from start to finish. Schlosser and Truesdale were the battery for the White Stockings and did excellent work. Collins pitched for the Giants. The game lasted 12 innings, and then ended with a score of 13 to 11, the White Stockings being the winners. Walley Altschul umpired the game.

ings being the winners. Walley Altschul umpired the game.

Arcades Win Another.

Andy Westby's Arcades, won another victory on their grounds on west Haller street, yesterday afternoon, defeating the Westminster-Ada team in a score of 10 to 7. Wise and Emlich were the Arcade battery. The Haller street grounds have been placed in good condition, and some fast playing was witnessed in yesterday's game. Following is the excellent record made by the Arcade team this season:

Won from Lima Giants, score, 14 to 4; defeated Waynesfield, 6-5; defeated Westminster, 14-7; defeated Fostoria, 11-6; lost to Ada, 12-6; defeated White Stockings, 9-0; defeated Lima Giants, 10-9; defeated Westminster, 10-7.

Won in the Ninth.

Yesterday afternoon at the golf grounds, in the west end, the Stars took a hard fought game from the Pirates to the tune of 14 to 13. The Pirates started at Kendrick in earnest and soon had a comfortable lead as the Stars could do nothing with Lowman's slants. The Pirates soon had a comfortable lead, but matters soon took on a different aspect under the vigorous stick work of the Stars, and the improved pitching of their "star" twirler. At the end of the 8th inning, the score stood 12 to 13 with the balance in favor of the Pirates. Then the Stars went at Lawson, and the final result was 14 to 13, in favor of them, the inning not being played out. The feature of the game was "Hoke" Smith's batting, and the umpiring.

At McBeth Park.

Notwithstanding the numerous counter attractions, the balloon ascension, an excellent new bill of vaudeville acts and the other features of entertainment at the McBeth park draw big crowds yesterday afternoon and last night. The balloon ascension and parachute drop made by "Kid" Hawley, were very successful, the crowd being able to witness the aeronaut's entire performance, the drop being made within a few hundred feet of the starting point. The attractions at the theatre this week, are far above the average, and the house was crowded at both afternoon and evening performances.

Junior Giants Defeated.

The Junior Giants met defeat at the hands of the Victor Stars, at St. Marys, yesterday, by a close score of 7 to 5. It was a pitcher's battle from start to finish. Features of the game were the all around playing of Collins, and the errorless work of both teams. The score:

While His Princely Gambling Den Was Being Consumed by Flames.

Visitors, Sportsmen and Women in Splendid Dresses Helped to Work Pumps and Pass Buckets of Water.

New York, Aug. 10.—The Casino was completely destroyed by fire on Sunday, says a Herald despatch, from Trouville, France. The Deauville races had just ended and hundreds of carriages and automobiles were returning toward Trouville, when a thick cloud of black smoke was seen in the vicinity of the hotel DeParis.

A few minutes before the fire was discovered, a large crowd had assembled in the main room, and gambling was about to begin. M. Fishhof was the banker. Cards had hardly been dealt, when a cry of "fire" was raised. With the greatest sang froid, M. Fishhof sounded "Messieurs pick up your stakes." He then threw down the cards and got up from his seat. By this time those present were feeling panic-stricken by the stair cases. Women were shrieking and rushing for the doors although there was of course, no immediate danger. The fire began in the ceiling of the gambling room, and was caused, it is believed, by a short circuit of electricity. In a few minutes, the whole of the right wing of the building was in flames. There was a very slow organization to combat the fire. Little water was to be had as the tide was out.

Employees of the Casino began to throw furniture out of the windows, and soon the beach was covered with chairs, tables, curtains and other furniture.

Fishhof, visitors, sportsmen and women in splendid dresses were soon helping to work the pumps or were watching to pass buckets. Among them was Baron Henri De Rothschild. In a short time, the whole Casino was a mass of flames, and soon afterwards, the roof fell in. The building was insured but the proprietors had gone to great expense to redecorate the rooms. The proprietors also lose about $100,000. The theatre and concert hall are undamaged.

FIVE DAYS ON ONIONS

And Rum Did This Stowaway Live, a Prisoner on Ocean Liner.

With Little Vitality Left He Attracted Attention by Tapping on Hatches, and It Took Ship's Surgeon 24 Hours to Resuscitate Him.

New York, Aug. 10.—Only the remarkable physical endurance of Wm. Langelie, in existing practically without food or drink for nearly five days, prevented a tragedy in the hold of the liner Cedric, which has just arrived after a rough voyage of ten days from Liverpool.

Langelie stowed away at Liverpool, in the night, July 30, without being detected, and succeeded in securing himself until there was no fear of his being put ashore. By means of a jack knife, Langelie pried open a hatch in the midship hold, and it was not until the Cedric was seven days out, that the watch reported to Commander Haddock, having heard a muffled tapping on one of the hatches. The commander immediately ordered an investigation, with the result that the unconscious and almost famished man was discovered imprisoned between several large boxes of merchandise. After working over Langelie for nearly 24 hours, the ship's surgeon succeeded in bringing him around. Langelie said that after secreting himself under the hatch, it was shut down, and fastened by sailors. Then he made the discovery that he was a prisoner, with only a few biscuits and a flask of rum between himself and starvation. By husbanding his meagre stock of food, he managed to subsist for 24 hours, and then cut his way into an iron bound crate, and secured some raw onions. He was only able to cut a hole large enough to abstract four onions, and this constituted his sole fare until he was discovered.

Side of the Case Is Told And the Wife Is Now the One to Engage Attention.

R. D. McDorman Withdraws His Petition and Will Not Enter a Protest.

Judge Mathers Will Render His Decision in the High School Case This Week and Close the Term.

There has been a reversal in the McDorman divorce suit, the husband having withdrawn his petition, and will permit the wife to prosecute her allegations of gross neglect of duty, and cruelty. R. D. McDorman was the original plaintiff and the petition charged the wife with deserting his home, and a four-months old babe. On the face of it, it looked as though Mrs. McDorman was the offender, but an answer and cross petition sets out a different state of facts, and is in line with a statement made in the Times-Democrat a few days after the suit was begun.

The withdrawing of the husband's petition gives credence to the story told by Mrs. McDorman, who recites several instances in which the gravest and most unnatural acts of cruelty are alleged. She says that the only purchases of clothing made by her husband was when they were married, Feb. 20, 1909, and since then he has contributed practically nothing for her support or that of her child. The defendant has been working as an oil pumper, and making good wages, but seems to have had other places for his money.

Defendant Settled.

Mary King, who recently brought a paternity action against Frank Mykel, has had the prosecutor notify it following a settlement with the defendant, who agreed to pay the sum of $125. The amount will be paid in installments of $20 per month.

Court House Briefs.

Under the arrangement between the executors of the Wise estate and Dora W. Joachim, a receipt was given Saturday afternoon, for $7,500 in cash and a note, for an equal amount, and it is now up to the probate judge to make a final entry in the case.

Awaiting a Decision.

The important matter in prospect for court this week, is the decision of Judge Mathers in the high school litigation. With that out of the way, there will be nothing for hearing until the latter part of September, and the fall term will open early in October with plenty of business for judge and bar.

THE LIMAITE A POOR SHOT.

Fired Four Times and Then Used His Gun as a Club.

The following dispatch from Denver Col., will be of interest to the number of Lima people who remember T. C. Carnahan, whose parents are said to still be residents of this city. The dispatch says:

"T. C. Carnahan fired four shots at Hugh Swearingin in the Burlington ticket office, at Seventeenth and Arapahoe street, this afternoon. Swearingin was in the office of Geo. Vallery, Denver agent of the company, talking to the latter at the time. Carnahan's bullets went wild, and he then began clubbing Swearingin with his revolver.

"None of the bullets struck Swearingin, but Carnahan's revolver, used as a club, badly damaged his head. Carnahan was speedily disarmed and placed under arrest. He is a mining man, operating in Leadville. Swearingin is contracting freight solicitor of the Burlington, and it is said the trouble between the two men was caused by a domestic quarrel over Swearingin's visits to Carnahan's parents' residence at Lima, O. Swearingin, although virtually uninjured, believed he was dying and made an ante-mortem statement, which he afterward tore up."

DEFENDANTS WANTED HERE.

Were Arrested at Celina and Brought Back Sunday...May Settle.

Chief Mills and Sergeant Armstrong went to Celina, yesterday morning, and returned at noon, with two prisoners, both of whom were wanted here to untangle some financial affairs that threatened them with having serious charges to answer to. The prisoners were John Stuck, a carpenter, who had recently been employed by P. C. Whitley, as a soliciting agent for the Continental Casualty Co., and the other was Orla A. Myers, a former employee of the Detroit Southern.

Stuck was charged with having appropriated about $19 in cash that should have been turned over to Mr. Whitley. He disappeared Saturday evening, but was soon apprehended at Celina. Some of his relatives and friends came to his rescue today, and as the amount of his shortage has been made up, the case will probably not be prosecuted.

Myers was wanted on the charge of having fraudulently received money, it being alleged that he sold his time and signed an order on the railroad company for an amount in excess of that which was due him. An effort is also being made to settle his case.

STATEMENT OF PRESIDENT

Of Preacher's Aid Society Indicates Treasurer Left Well Supplied.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 10.—About 20 Methodist ministers connected with the Preachers' Aid Society, held a secret meeting here today, to consider the situation growing out of the defalcation of the former treasurer, Willard S. Allen. Investigation of the case had disclosed evidence that for the last six or seven years, Mr. Allen borrowed $1,500 to $2,000 for three days in March from ex-Alderman Charles Witt, of east Boston. He also borrowed similar amounts from the east Boston operative bank, at the same period. This has led to the belief that a sum aggregating about $4,000 was needed to cover up irregularities in the accounts and satisfy the auditor of the Preachers' Aid Society. It is believed, also that if this was the case, the treasurer must have taken a large sum of money with him, when he left this city, a week ago, and must have true securities of the society as well.

This view is said to be confirmed by the statement of president Frank Wood, of the Columbia Trust Co., that Mr. Allen, last year, deposited $52,000 in cash at one time with the trust company in his own name.

Of the Circus, Theatre and Carnival Are Included

In the Attractions That Will Entertain the Crowds at the Merchants' Street Fair.

As the date for the merchant's free street fair and carnival—week of August 24—approaches nearer the reports from other cities in which the Heck Carnival Shows are appearing, give assurance that Lima is to have one of the best and most enjoyable gala weeks in her history. The best and most entertaining features of the theatre, circus and carnival go to make up the Heck shows and the various attractions are so numerous that every day will be a big day for everybody. The true attractions are generally better and more numerous than those offered by any other street fair outfit now on the road.

The week of August 24 should indeed be a gala week for Lima.

THE IDLER.

Tomorrow night a party of young people of Sidney will have a special car over the Western Ohio and will spend the evening at the McBeth park dance pavilion. The Assembly club of this city will have possession of the pavilion this evening.

Frank Homer, has brought his filly, Zanta, from Cridersville, and has her quartered at the Lima track, where she will be kept in training until the fair, when she will be entered in the county race. She was tried out yesterday, and proved to be in fine condition. The running races will be one of the features of the agricultural meeting, and Mr. Homer's friends would like to see his filly make a showing when the time comes.
